

Position Available:
Second Grade Teacher
Beginning: Immediately

St. Peter's School is an independent, coeducational, non-sectarian Preschool through Eighth Grade school, educating approximately 175 students in the center of Philadelphia for over 180 years. We are seeking a dynamic full-time Second Grade teacher who has experience planning an integrated curriculum, is committed to academic excellence and inclusion, and who understands the social and emotional growth and development of young children. The ideal candidate will have excellent communication and organizational skills, and the motivation to work collaboratively as a member of a team to build a sense of community in and outside of the classroom. This position is for an immediate placement due to a sudden departure of the previous teacher.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Demonstrates strong classroom management skills
- Is willing to and capable of teaching online when needed
- Ensures that multicultural themes and diverse perspectives are incorporated throughout the curriculum
- Partners with families to nurture the child's social and emotional growth
- Is responsible for ongoing assessment and communication with families and their Director
- Works collaboratively and with mutual respect with all members of the faculty
- Establishes positive and productive relationships with students based on mutual respect and good will
- Uses a variety of teaching techniques suitable to the developmental age and needs of the students and subject matter being taught
- Provides differentiated instruction when appropriate and is comfortable with student led learning
- Uses a variety of technology formats to collaborate, publish, and engage with peers, families, and colleagues
- Attends faculty meetings, school events, pursues professional development opportunities, and contributes to committees on campus
- Assists with additional duties as needed or assigned including recess, dismissal, and lunch
- Meets all expectations regarding job responsibilities in a professional and timely manner.
- Models ethical and professional behavior
- Demonstrates a commitment to and actively supports the School, its Mission, and Diversity Mission Statement:

To honor the richness of childhood, foster mastery of academic principles, and educate students to be generous and committed citizens of their communities and the world.

St. Peter's School is committed to engaging and preparing students for meaningful participation in a diverse society.

We commit ourselves to the active pursuit of recognizing and honoring each person's voice and to fostering a school environment that embodies the values of equity, inclusion, and justice for others, with respect to race, ethnicity, culture, religion, socioeconomic status, ability, gender identity, and sexual orientation.

A Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood or Elementary Education is required. While a Master's degree is not required, advanced coursework or training is preferred, as well as previous teaching experience. Salary will be determined based on experience and education. For more information, please visit our website at www.st-peters-school.org. Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, and list of three references via email with the subject line "Second Grade" to Diane Scirrotto at dscirrotto@st-peters-school.org

St. Peter's School is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion or creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, genetic background, age, disability, or military service in its hiring, employment or other programs and activities.